letter no: 3907/77-93 dated the 7th Nov. 1894 which required that intimation of the despatch of prisoners in the prescribed form, might conveniently pass through the Residency. This procedure has been in vogue since that time. In this Office Pol: no: 477 of 21.12.08, intimation was given of the despatch of 6 convicts to the Vellore jail, through the Residency. What is said in the present letter under disposal is that according to rule 626 of the Madras jail manual, the Supdt of the B. & C. jail may be instructed to send advice of the despatch of prisoners direct to the Supdt of the Vellore Central jail, in future
